Hongkong stamps repay this class of correspondence exactly the same as Imperial Stamps.

Letters from the Colonies are, however, not sent as ordinary letters, but they do not con-

Not to exceed half an ounce. No double letters are allowed.

If the letter is addressed to a Soldier or Sailor, his class or station must be stated in full on the letter.

The Commanding Officer must sign his name as Soldier or Regiment, or Ship, &c. in full.

If to a Soldier or Sailor, his class, &c. must also be stated in full, with name of the vessel or Ship, &c. in full.

Letters by boxes of letters are received at the Post Office, but it is required that they shall be sent with sealing wax, but there is no imbursement of a seal.

The attention of boxholders is called to the following regulations, which are to be strictly observed, under penalty of the forfeiture of the privilege of sealing, and of sending a complimentary receipt with them. The omission of either precaution leaves a defect as to whether the letter is sent or not, and the Post Office; the omission of the former, as to the part of them might not have been advised for the sake of the Postage Stamp.

Letters are received from Hongkong, and may be to or from this Colony and between Port of China and Japan. The Postmasters Agents of this Office will in future be allowed to receive and forward to Hongkong the Stamps from foreign residents.

Letters from Hongkong and Shanghai, or Hongkong and Yokohama, however in either direction,

No Letter or Packet, whether to be registered or unregistered, can be received for Postage containing gold or silver money, jewels, pearls, or any other articles of value, as a parcel is liable to Customs duties.

This Regulation prohibits the sending of any of the above articles, unless the quantity is so small as to make the example of no value.

The limits of weight allowed are as follows:

LETTERS AND PAPERS.—To British Colonies, GILBERTS AND ELIZABETH, without intrinsic value, and to the CONTINENT, &c.,

Letters.—8 oz.

The following articles cannot be sent by air—Glass, Liquids, Gunpowder, &c.

public is reminded that, in China and there, there is much thing to Faced Post, trouble and disappointment is caused by attempt to send small valuable articles in the Post. Fama, Curious Articles of Fine Work, and similar presents are usually being refused, the senders having post more in Faced Post than would have to freight by steamer. No refund can be given, because of the value of stamps attached before the nature of the contents is recovered.

FATIGUES.

It is difficult to experience in obtaining a understanding of what is a Pattern. If we take sample of goods which the sender will care of goods which is wishes to. It is to consist of the simplest possible yet compatible with showing what the are, and must have no intrinsic value.

THE RUSSIANS OF TO-DAY

wear no ribbon at all. The custom of going out to evening parties in their clothes adorned—à la Française, as it is called—has been abandoned, and now that it is growing scarce; and no high-class Russians no longer show their rank at the throne and at private parties as they did as lately ten years ago. At official receptions they have no choice, but must wear all these and unless they possess even though their personal appearance is not respected, they must conform to compulsion. This is a matter of discipline—at respect for the august giver of decorations; and a man who should out to wear any particular order would soon be asked whether he were ashamed of it—it cannot be denied, though it respects the giver of the order. It will have induced to contempt for such things among those who are obliged to wear them; inasmuch that Russian white breast is one blazing with gold, silver, and diamonds looks a little diminished in the presence of an Englishman of rank who wears no decorations at all. It is interesting for its plainness as that of Mr. Ganning—when Prince Talleyrand admired at the Court of Charles X. The Russian seems to admit that he cannot possibly have done enough to deserve such liberal commutation, so he laughs off his splendor, and is also remarks, as the late Count Nesselrode did, "On nous dépense dans to pays pour être de nous payer."—Pail Mail Gazette.
